

Christine Leroux

Biography

- 1985-1989 Bachelor degree in Biology/Toxicology at the University of Québec in Montréal.
- 1990-1993 DNO (National Diploma of Oenology) from the University of Bordeaux in France. Some of my practicums included cellars like Château Margaux and Petrus but also wine laboratories and consulting in the region of Bordeaux.
- 1994 Worked at Cassegrain Winery in Australia (N.S.W.) for the duration of their harvest.
- 1994-1995 Assistant-winemaker at J.Lohr Winery in California
- 1995-1996 Lab technician and assistant winemaker at Inniskillin Ontario
- 1996-1998 Winemaker at Inniskillin in Oliver, British-Colombia
- 1998-now Started my own winemaking consulting business. Some of my clients include Oliver Twist Winery and Quinta Ferreira both in Oliver, Tomhaven Winery, Hollywood & Wines and Sonoran Estate Winery in Summerland, and Elephant Island Orchard Wines in Naramata.
- 2000-2008 Executive Winemaker at St-Hubertus Winery in Kelowna.
- 1999-now Teaching oenology in the Cellar Assistant program at the Okanagan College in Penticton.